

Our weekend of invitations is almost here!

I wonder who you have invited to join you at one of our events?

I am delighted that Archdeacon John Lomas is joining us on Thursday 5 May at 7pm in St Cybi's, Holyhead. John will be helping us explore the question: 'Why should we invite people to hear about Jesus?' He is Chair of the Fellowship for Parish Evangelism.

Something a little different happens on Friday 6 May in St Cybi's at 8pm

Calfari: a concert (acoustic set)

St Cybi's Holyhead

A local band Calfari are a new Welsh language band and have just won the Welsh 'Brits'. They will be headlining this event. They and others want to play in a 'holy space'

Early on Saturday morning (7 May), well not too early. There will be a Men's Breakfast at Trearddur Stores at 8am

Richard Wood is the Vicar of Bro Madyn, and worth getting out of bed to hear. Who can resist a free breakfast

On Saturday evening, nationally renowned speaker, Jill Saward will talk with us about how we might forgive

St Gwenfaen's Hall at 7pm

In 1986 she was the victim of an attack in Ealing Vicarage, and will speak about her journey of forgiveness and faith. She is a campaigner against violence in general and against woman in particular.

Who will you invite?

Names of those you would like to invite?

What steps do you need to take?

Bro Cybi Ministry Area

The Anglican Churches on Holy Island: St Cybi, St David, St Ffraid, St Gwenfaen, Morawelon Messy Church

www.holyheadparishchurches.co.uk

Sunday 8 May:
an invitation to hear the Bishop
St Ffraid, Trearddur at 10:30am

Bishop Andy is the lead evangelist in the Diocese. He will be leading worship in the Ministry Area in the morning.

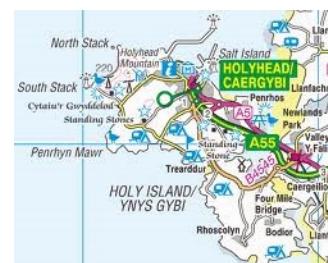

In the afternoon, there will be an act of worship on Rhoscolyn and Newry beaches

On Saturday morning and into the afternoon, there will be pop up Messy Church activities in Holyhead

Jennifer Roberts will be doing a couple of puppet shows by the Millennium Cross in Holyhead at 11am and 12 Noon

A weekend full of invitations
Penwythnos llawn o gwahoddiadau

who have you invited?